Welcome to the new Skye and Lochalsh Wellbeing and Community Support Directory packed with contact details and information on a wide range of services available in our local area. The majority of these are provided by Third Sector organisations – volunteer-led groups and charities that support the health and wellbeing of us all here in Skye and Lochalsh. Where there is no locally based organisation offering assistance, we have included signposts to organisations based outwith the immediate local area. We have also included contact details for key services provided by statutory agencies covering emergency services, access to medical services and social work.

This Directory has been compiled as part of Year One of the Skye and Lochalsh Health Wellbeing Welfare and Social Care (HWWS) Collaboration Project following extensive mapping and engagement. For more information about the HWWS Collaboration please visit <https://www.slcvo.org.uk/hwws-collaboration>. You can also download a copy of this Directory from the SLCVO website.

Wherever possible, information gathered from online sources has been checked and verified with the group/organisation listed. Where personal emails have been included these have been done so with permissions given for the sole purpose of contacting those individuals about the work of the group or organisation listed.

We would like to thank Lochalsh and Skye Housing Association. Their original financial contribution has not only enabled previous copies of the Skye and Lochalsh Community Health and Wellbeing Directory (2019 and 2022) to be printed – but has also enabled us to print copies of this new Directory. Mòran taing.
