

Community Planning and Co-production

As a HTSI rural partner we are funded to:

- Improve third sector understanding and connections to community planning and health and social care planning processes.
- Support opportunities for third sector and cross sector collaboration & networking in Skye, Lochalsh and Wester Ross.

We do this by:

- Using local intelligence to steer and encourage representation in local, national and regional consultations.
- Supporting the local third sector to connect to the HTSI Third Sector Representation Pathway
- Facilitating and supporting the third sector to engage with, and participate in, community planning and the health and social care planning processes
- Running/supporting thematic networking sessions
- Facilitating opportunities for third/cross sector collaboration

Group Support and Development

As a rural delivery partner for the Highland Third Sector Interface (HTSI) we provide a range of direct support services, including:

1-1 guidance and coaching in:

- Legal structures and governing documents
- Board roles and responsibilities
- Regulatory guidance and legislation
- Good governance and best practice
- Volunteer management, recruitment and support
- Planning for funding applications

Support to set-up new group or project, including:

- Help to establish a steering group
- Guidance in how to identify need and develop feasibility studies
- Support to plan community engagement/consultations

Support with organisational change

including:

- Organisational health checks
- Strategic and organisational planning

Volunteer Recruitment and Management

Whether you currently involve volunteers in your organisation or are just starting to think about it, we can support you to:

- Recruit volunteers and promote opportunities
- Develop volunteer policies and procedures
- Help you to improve your volunteer management practice
- Connect with other volunteer involving groups to work together and share experience
- Celebrate your volunteers and take part in volunteering awards such as the young persons Saltire Awards and Volunteer Friendly Awards.

Supporting The Third Sector

Skye and Lochalsh Council for Voluntary Organisations (SLCVO) support third sector groups, people and public bodies to make a difference in communities across Skye, Lochalsh and Wester Ross.

We support third sector organisations in many aspects of their development including good governance, recruiting volunteers, project planning and community engagement.

We have developed a third sector area profile and host networking activities to improve the understanding of the impact and diversity of the third sector in Skye, Lochalsh and Wester Ross .

We work with the third and public sector to support community planning and co-production. Ensuring the experience and needs of groups and communities play an active role in planning and development processes.
